Although it seemed a little bit simplistic to see this fear as just a male problem (try watching a girl stand on a scale sometime), it turns out that Dr. Gustafson was very nearly right in his concept of the two maybe the real root of my problem was not fraudulence but a basic inability to really love . . .

Galatians 4:4,5

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

Others see themselves in broader landscapes, in the context of longer narratives about forgiveness, or redemption or setback and ascent. Maturity is moving from the close-up landscape, focusing less on your own supposed strengths and weaknesses and more on the sea of empathy in which you swim, which is the medium necessary for understanding others, one's self, and survival. . . .

“the sea of empathy”

- For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses (Heb 4:15)
- For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust. (Psalm 103:14)
- Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith? (Mark 4:40)
