SEARCHING FOR WISDOM

Knowledge, Knowledge everywhere...

FRANNY AND ZOOEY

J. D. SALINGER

I don't think it would have all got me quite so down if just once in a while—just once in a while—there was at least some polite little perfunctory implication that knowledge should lead to wisdom, and that if it doesn't, it's just a disgusting waste of time! But there never is! You never even hear any hints dropped on a campus that wisdom is supposed to be the goal of knowledge. You hardly ever even hear the word 'wisdom' mentioned!

A misty forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees, creating a serene and contemplative atmosphere. The path is wet and reflective, with the surrounding trees and foliage shrouded in a soft, ethereal light.

But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding? Man does not know its worth, and it is not found in the land of the living

Job 28:12, 13

A photograph of a narrow, winding path in a forest. The path is covered in fallen leaves and is slightly damp, reflecting the light. Sunlight filters through the dense canopy of green trees, creating a hazy, ethereal atmosphere. The path leads into the distance, disappearing into the woods.

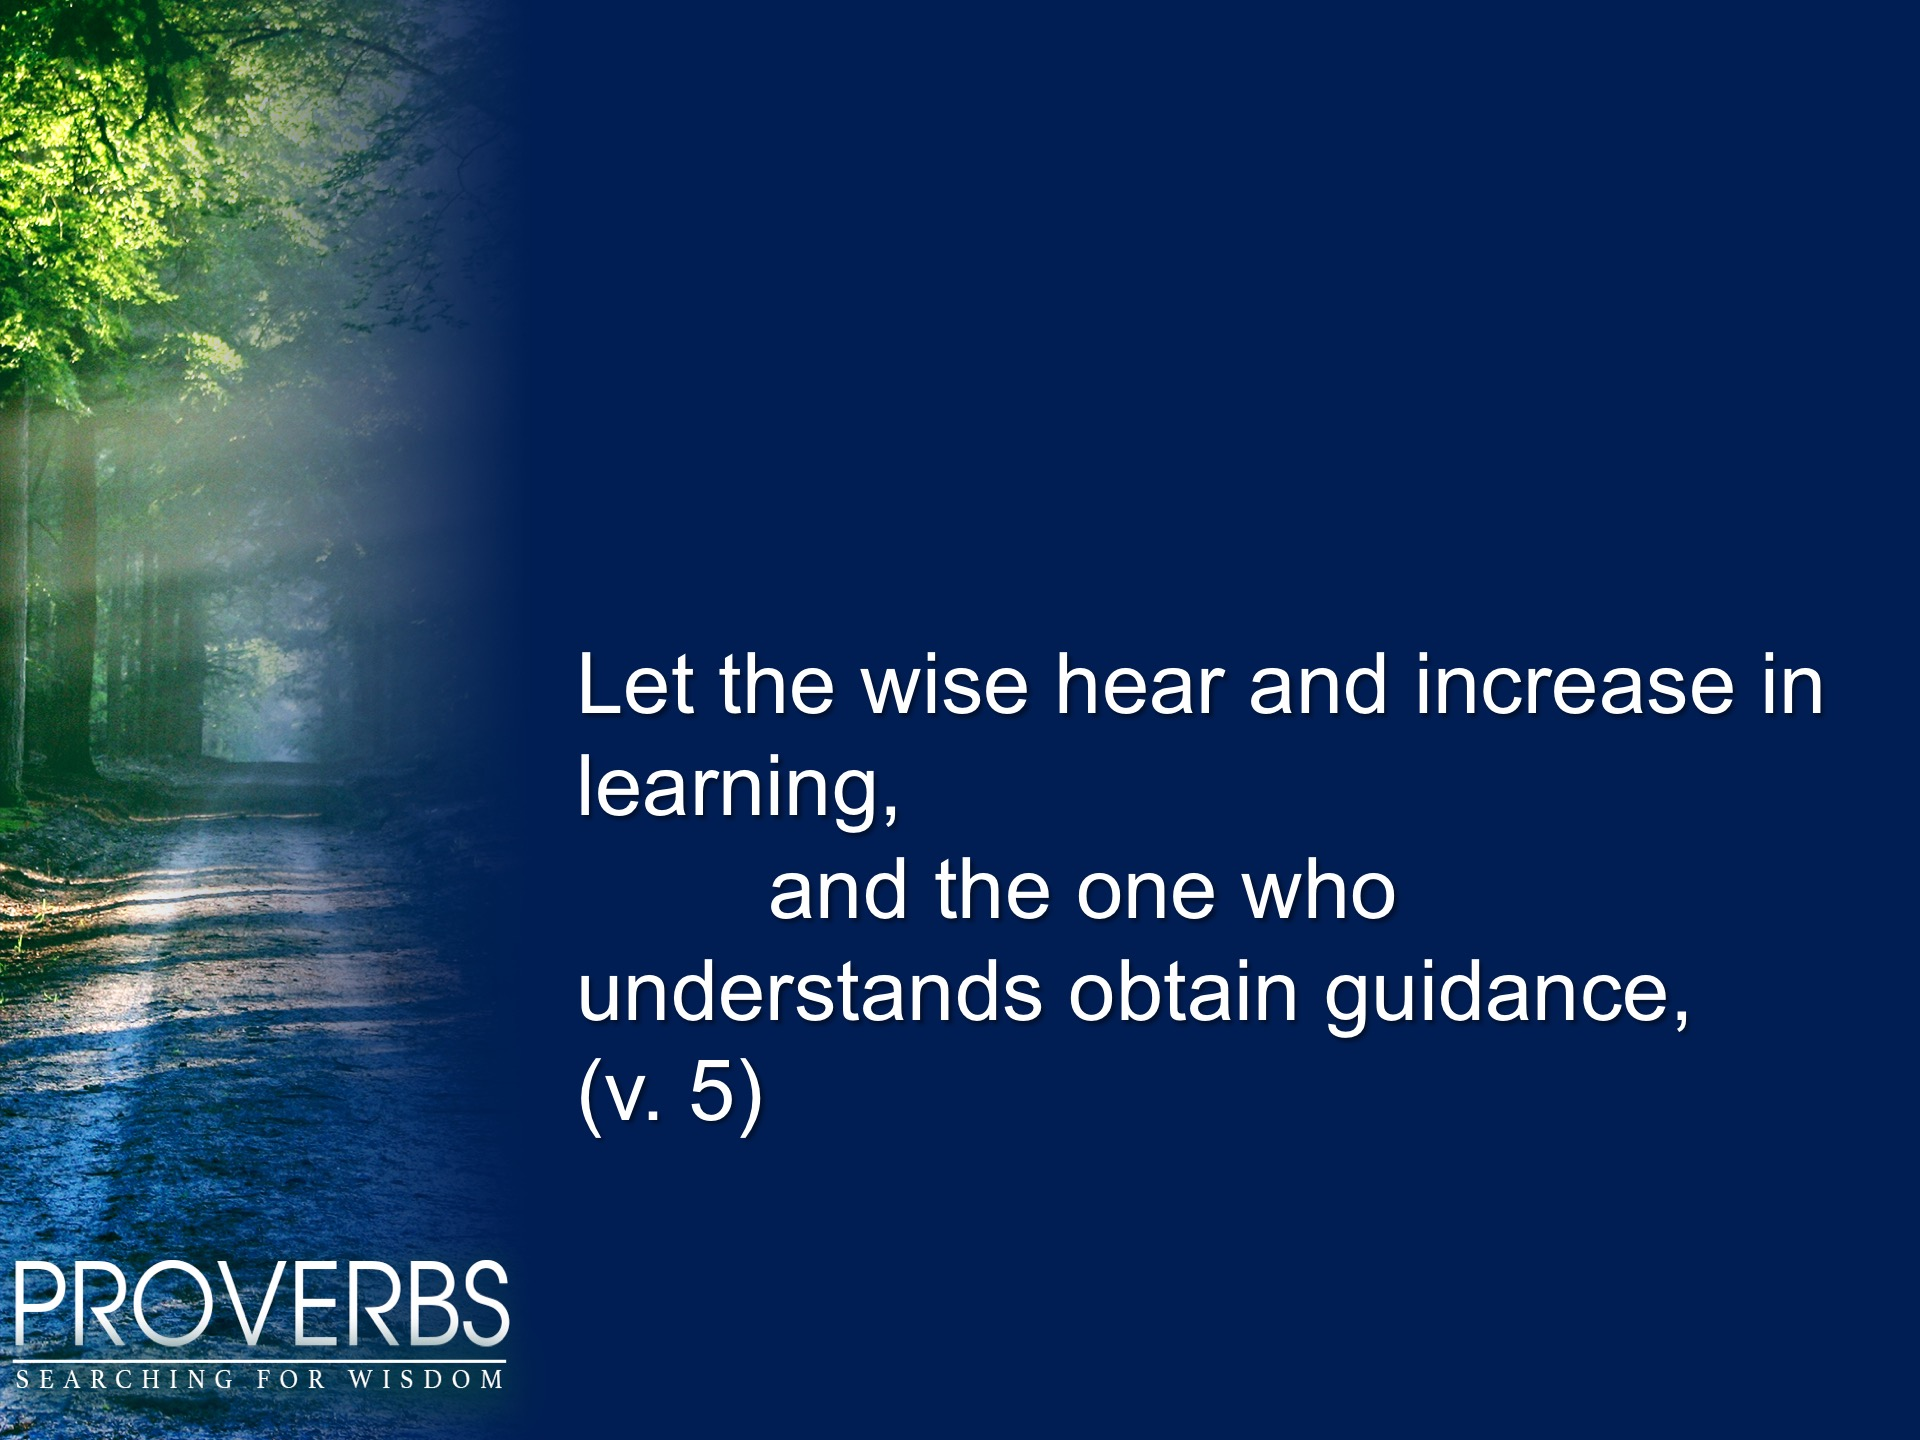

...to give prudence to the simple,
v. 4

Rachel Denhollander,
“Can We Reconcile
Justice and Forgiveness?”

*Concepts of forgiveness
and justice are often misunderstood...When you don't understand something well, you don't apply it well...if you don't apply truth well the result is incredibly damaging. .*

A misty forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees, creating a serene and contemplative atmosphere. The path is wet and reflects the light, leading the viewer's eye into the distance. The trees are tall and dense, with their leaves creating a canopy overhead. The overall mood is peaceful and wise.

Let the wise hear and increase in learning,
and the one who understands obtain guidance,
(v. 5)

A misty forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees, creating a serene and contemplative atmosphere. The path is wet and reflects the light, leading the viewer's eye into the distance.

Answer not a fool according to his folly,

lest you be like him yourself.

*Answer a fool according to his folly,
lest he be wise in his own eyes.*

The sign of wisdom

is a continual cheerfulness.

French proverb

Calvin

this [wisdom] restrains itself from sinning, not out of dread of punishment alone; but because it loves and reveres God as Father.... Even if there were no hell, it would still shudder at offending him
